MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER
AND
NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: August 23, 2021

Released: August 23, 2021

By the Chief, Audio Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Media Bureau (Bureau) has before it the above-captioned application (Application) of Natkim Radio, LLC (Permittee), for a license to cover FM translator station W285FR, Palatka, Florida (Translator). In this Memorandum Opinion and Order and Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (NAL),¹ we find that the Permittee apparently willfully violated section 73.3598² of the Rules by failing to timely file a license to cover application, and willfully and repeatedly violated section 301 of the Act,³ by engaging in unauthorized operation of the Translator after its construction permit had expired. Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Permittee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500).

II. BACKGROUND

2. The Bureau issued Permittee a construction permit for the Translator on January 17, 2018, with an expiration date of January 17, 2021 (Permit). However, Permittee not did file a covering license application by January 17, 2021, and the Permit expired on its own terms that day pursuant to section 73.3598(e) of the Rules.⁴ On March 9, 2021, Permittee filed a Petition for Reconsideration (Petition), demonstrating that the Translator was constructed prior to the expiration of the Permit. The staff treated the Petition as a request for waiver of section 73.3598 of the Rules, granted the waiver, reinstated the Permit, and afforded Permittee until August 13, 2021, to file a covering license application for the Permit.⁵ Permittee filed the Application on August 12, 2021.

¹ This NAL is issued pursuant to sections 309(k) and 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act), and section 1.80 of the Commission's rules (Rules). See 47 U.S.C. §§ 309(k), 503(b); 47 CFR § 1.80. The Bureau has delegated authority to issue the NAL under section 0.283 of the Rules. See 47 CFR § 0.283.

³ See 47 U.S.C. § 301.

⁴ 47 CFR § 73.3598(e) ("Any construction permit for which construction has not been completed and for which an application for license has not been filed, shall be automatically forfeited upon expiration without any further affirmative cancellation by the Commission.").

III. DISCUSSION

3. Proposed Forfeiture. The Permittee failed to timely file a covering license application as required by section 73.3598(e) of the Rules, and continued Translator operations with the permitted facilities after the Permit expired on January 17, 2021, before attempting to file the appropriate covering license application, and did not seek special temporary authority to operate with those facilities.⁶ Thus, Permittee engaged in unauthorized operation for nearly a month in violation of section 301 of the Act.

4. This NAL is issued pursuant to section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, a person who is found to have willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.⁷ Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.⁸ The legislative history to section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,⁹ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the section 503(b) context.¹⁰ Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”¹¹

5. The Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement and section 1.80(b)(10) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for the failure to file a required form.¹² The guidelines also specify a base forfeiture amount of $10,000 for construction and/or operation without an instrument of authorization for the service.¹³ In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹⁴

Memorandum Opinion and Order, 26 FCC Rcd 7153, 7157, para 11 (2011) (Clear Channel) (upholding as proper the Bureau's practice of processing a late-filed covering license application for facilities fully completed by the construction deadline through the waiver process); Cranesville Block Company, Inc., Letter Order, 27 FCC Rcd 2018, 2019-20 (MB 2012) (dismissing a petition for reconsideration of an expired construction permit as procedurally improper and treating it instead as a request for waiver).

⁶ In the Petition, Permittee provided a Declaration of Alan Alsobrook, Permittee's engineer, who stated that he ordered the equipment for the Translator, was primarily responsible for its construction and installation, and “inadvertently failed to notify [Permittee] that a license to cover application was required.” Petition at Attachment C. It is well settled that applicants and licensees are responsible for the errors of their engineers. See, e.g., Roy E. Henderson, Memorandum Opinion and Order, 33 FCC Rcd 3385, 3387-88, para. 6 (2018) (rejecting argument that licensee's engineer was to blame for station's unauthorized operations).

¹⁴ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(2)(E); see also Forfeiture Policy Statement, 12 FCC Rcd at 17100; 47 CFR § 1.80(b)(4).

6. Based on our review of the facts and circumstances, we tentatively find that a $7,000 base forfeiture is appropriate.¹⁵ Licensee failed to file a timely covering license application for the Translator and engaged in unauthorized operation of the Translator after the permit expired on January 17, 2021. Taking into consideration all of the factors required by section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act and the Forfeiture Policy Statement, we will reduce the forfeiture from the base amount to $3,500 because, as a translator, the Translator is providing a secondary service.¹⁶ We will grant the Application by separate action upon the conclusion of this forfeiture proceeding if there are no issues other than the apparent violation that would preclude grant of the Application.
